"Some romances last a lifetime..."

Over 10.000 voters on Literotica awarded this book a 9.4/10

In Best Sister Ever we meet Martin, hard at work in an empty office, dismantling the company he has built from the ground up. His bankruptcy cost him his life's work and his marriage. With hardly any money left, he retreats to a small cottage somewhere in the woods in Holland.

His sister Kate, 16 years his junior, finds him there and takes him to London. She hooks him up with a job in showbusiness and so begins a mad, hilarious and erotic adventure, where he meets several amazing women who do much to rebuild his confidence. Martin ends up on stage and as a TV sidekick, but will he get back his career? And what is Kate's secret? She's obviously in love, but with whom?

You'll laugh until you cry over this immensely funny and deeply touching erotic romance story, of a love that truly lasts a lifetime.

This is part 1 of a trilogy. The story continues in 'An Audience With Carstairs', out now.

This isn't the next great danish novel

By D. Levy

This isn't the next great danish novel. But it's a very entertaining, funny and titillating read. I give the author credit for managing to write a compelling story that has you continuing to read just to see what happens next.

Buy it! Twice.

By Aaron

Part one of a trilogy, and yes, you will want to read them all. Dry wit, no tolerance for idiots and bizarre situations make for a non-stop laugh riot.

Fun, sexy and relentlessly entertaining.

By Amazon Customer

Told from the pov of an 'everyman' with some notably unusual history, this story develops at a rambling pace and never really slows down till the end. The humor is in turns dry, juvenile, subtle and wickedly direct, I have multiple laugh out loud moments.

While the bumbling angst of the main character was a central plot/character point, it rankled a little bit.

The eroticism is decent, but not the focus. The characters are believable in that they are flawed, make mistakes, and don't always 'get over' those mistakes. I wasn't sure I was pulling for the ending as it happened, but I was genuinely happy when it did.

One of the better stories of it's kind that I've read, I would give it a 4.5 if I could.
