What would you do if you ran into a real life book boyfriend?

You might scream or maybe giggle.

You might play coy or maybe stare.

You might ask for a picture or maybe an autograph.

You might call your girlfriends or maybe post about it.

What did I do? I ran. Literally.

Kim was a typical college student with a splash of dorky, a dash of funny, and a pinch of clumsy...well, maybe more than a pinch. After making a fool of herself in front of her classmate Brent, and his friend, Travis, a dead-ringer for one her book boyfriends, she tried to stay away. But after a few hilarious chance encounters, they became fast friends.

And then came the bet. It was Travis versus Brent, but somehow Kim got roped in to help team Travis. He was supposed to find and woo his real life book girlfriend. What could go wrong with a couple of college kids and an innocent bet? Let the shenanigans and laughter ensue! And maybe add in a bit of friendship, fun and most definitely, love.

If you are looking for book that makes you smile, LOL, and has romance then check out Renee's Book Boyfriend

By goodem

THIS. BOOK. IS. A. MUST. READ!

Why are you limited on just 5 stars??? This is the question that I was asking myself when I was only a few chapters into Book Boyfriend by D.C. Renee because even then I knew that this book was going to be so much more than just 5 stars! 5 stars is just not enough to give this book.

The whole premise of this story has me giggling like a schoolgirl full of giddiness and crushes. Renee's take on the whole romance book boyfriend was beyond smart, refreshing and exciting. I loved how the story made me feel! Renee completely outdid herself giving us the story of three best friends- Kim, Brent, and Travis. Their relationships with each other are hilariously funny, sweet, tender and angsty all at the same time. It was such a great lighthearted, romantic read centering around a love triangle of best friends.

Like most of us ladies, Kim is a closet nerd who can turn up the hotness as she chooses. However, immediately upon meeting Jamie McGuire's "Travis Maddox" real life book boyfriend, she falls flat on her face- literally all while his best friend Brent watches. Travis and Brent can't get enough of Kim's infectious humor (quite frankly neither could I) and immediately attach themselves to her and her antics even if it means creating the real life story of Beautiful Disaster. Realizing Travis manwhore ways, Kim and Brent bet him that he can't land a girl for the right reasons. Who knew where this bet would take them?

I could never quite decide which best friend I wanted for Kim. Each man was completely irresistible for so many different reasons. There were soooooo many sexual tension filled moments that had me just squirming for them all to decide! I couldn't take it! At times I was even ready for them just to say the hell with it and just all three be together! I truly fell in love with each friend right along with Kim.

If you are looking for book that makes you smile, LOL, and has romance then check out Renee's Book Boyfriend. It's one of the best books I've read this year and will be one I continue to recommend! I can't wait to read more from this author!

 You don't have to read Beautiful Disaster by Jamie McGuire, but trust me it's damn good too!

Worth more than 5 Stars

By Christy Hilton-Hall

This story was an awesome read from the first word to the last. Funny as Hell, heart warming, heart breaking, to every other emotion there is, I loved every word. I felt like I could of been Kim or Kim could of been me if my life was anything even remotely worth writing or reading about. On the inside I connected with Kim, Kim is my subconscious I think lol I absolutely loved it.

You get two sexy book boyfriends in this book.

By xrayer

You have to love a book with a great book boyfriend. While this one has not one but TWO sexy book boyfriends for you.

Kim is a college student that is a book loving dorky nerd. She doesn't have anything to do with guys after she has her heart broken. The day she makes a fool of herself at the gym in front of Brent and Travis begins a funny and powerful friendship. A bet is made and the story begins. As the book progresses Kim becomes close friends with Brent and Travis and really gets to know them. Brent and Travis also get to know Kim and her past. As they spend more time together they try to convince her that she is beautiful, smart, funny and deserves to be worshipped.

I love DC Renee's book and this one was not different. Usually she has a lot of twist, turns and angst in her books but this one was an endearing and funny book of three people who forge a close friendship. As the story progresses I will say I was cheering for one of these two but I was also on the fence at times.

I loved that this was a light read. I was laughing so hard at times. From the cheesy pick up lines to Kim's clumsy moments will have you laughing out loud. All that aside you will fall in love with Brent and Travis as they convince Kim that she is a beautiful woman who deserves to be loved. Will Brent, Travis or Kim find true love?
