FACTS ON A BIBLICAL MARRIAGE: A HEBRAIC PERSPECTIVE BY PROF. WA LIEBENBERG PDF

The following verse taught by the great scholar, Rabbi Paul, in the New Covenant is frowned upon, and conveniently ignored ...

"But if anyone thinks it behaving indecently toward his virgin (if she is beyond her prime, and so it ought to be), let him do what he desires; he does not sin; let them marry." (Taken from the Literal Translation of the Holy Bible to get the literal meaning)

Yes it was a shocker for me as well! Amazingly Rabbi Paul is strictly teaching what God already ordained in the Old Covenant ...

This study answers questions such as:

- How many different types of marriage ceremonies do you get in the Bible?
- Is it true that God allowed "common-law" marriages, and if so are there any examples in the Bible?
- What is a "common-law marriage"?
- How does the Hebrew Blood Covenant apply to the marriage?
- What is God's purpose for marriage? Why are most of the rites in the "Western (Christian) way" of marriage pagan?
- From where did these rites originate?

Brace yourself, this booklet will challenge you!
