This book is terrible I honestly have no idea why it has such good reviews. If you're a serious language learner this book is a waste of time. There are fatal gaps in information in the book. Whole verbs/phrases left unexplained or to be assumed by the reader. If you just want basic phrases, there are better books. If you seriously want to learn Japanese, there are FAR better books. Don't waste your time/money.

Great Book!

By momans

I really really like this book. I am traveling to Japan in 3 months and I believe its always a good idea to get accustomed to the language especially if you're going to live there for 2+months. This is a great introduction to Basic Japanese and bought it with another book on the Hiragana and Katakana Alphabet. So they really work together. The book was shipped on time and the condition was great!

Bought this for my son who wishes he could move to Japan. Actually, I think he wishes he was Asian! He found it to be the best, easiest to use Japanese workbook so far, and he's always on the lookout.
